Marsala Giarola is made with 100% fine Marsala DOC.

It is produced scrupulously following the ancient homemade recipe which involved the use of carefully selected natural raw materials and a long refinement process and aged in oak barrels. Marsala is ideal enjoyed fresh at the end of a meal, or it becomes a perfect complement to your zabaglione or to your sweet preparations of any kind: dip the biscuits in it or use it in the preparation of desserts or creams.

In addition, it occupies an important place in the preparation of delicious marsala dishes in the kitchen.

GIAROLA®
CASA FONDATA NEL 1918

An ancient origin.

It all began in 1910, when the young Abele Giarola he became an apprentice in a Piacenza grocery store. Her resourcefulness and his courage allowed him to know and learn the main concepts of manufacturing and trading.

1918 Marsala Giarola is born, fruit of passion and love for fine wines and precious natural substances. The Giarola Savem Company, which has a century-old history, is considered one of the strongest and most qualified Italian companies in the liqueurs and syrups sector. It exports to many countries, gaining much acclaim for the excellent quality of the production.
