The Vernaccia of San Gimignano has been the first Italian wine to obtain the D.O.C.G. Denomination (DPR 3/3/66). It is made from the grapes of the Vernaccia vines and becomes wine, in the town of San Gimignano, as prescribed by production regulations. A straw-coloured wine with a fine and clear scent, dry and aromatic with a pleasing after taste. So as to fully appreciate the wine best organological qualities, it is advised to be served naturally cool and at a temperature of 12°-13° C.

TRAMBUSTI
Casa Fondata nel 1934

Chianti Trambusti was founded in 1934 by Orlando Trambusti, a wine lover and connoisseur who decided to turn his own natural vocation into a profession.

Today the company is a large wine making firm with modern, functional equipment used to produce and bottle top quality wines, while fully respecting its traditions and the territory. In the 2000s, the company returned to its territorial vocation, purchasing Tenuta Poggio ai Mandorli in Greve and restoring it to its original splendour.
