Region Piedmonte

Just some towns in the Montferrat, historically suited to the cultivation and vinification of Barbera grapes, received Nizza DOCG title. Moreover, this privilege is only granted to vineyards with the best exposure and the harvest limit is set at a maximum of 7000 kg of grapes per hectare. These very strict rules along with responsible growing and a lot of love for the land gave birth to this wine.

Alibrianza

Roberto Mazzei's passion for viticulture and his keen sense to press a good drop of wine led to the founding of the family company Alibrianza srl in 1981. Since the creation of the family business, the company has consistently selected exceptional wines from Italy's most important wine regions for international clients. After his son, Andreas, joined the company in the '90s, the production plant was brought up-to-date and innovative winery techniques were adopted, leading to greater quality control and portfolio management. Special attention has always been paid to consistency and reliability, guaranteeing a high quality product. Thanks to long-lasting partnerships with local winemakers all over Italy, today Alibrianza is a guarantee for a selected repertoire of well-balanced and expressive wines
