Region Tuscany

This wine of great character is produced from the grapes from the Tenuta Poggio ai Mandorli vineyards: 90% Sangiovese and a small addition of Merlot and Syrah, aged for over 18 months in oak barrels then refined in the bottle for a further four months. A deeply intense ruby red colour with the slightest of garnet hues, a complex and elegant bouquet with hints of violets and fruits of the forest, a warm and well-rounded flavour with smooth, noble tannins offering a clear, very mellow and persistent finish. Particularly loved as a wine for meditation, ideal with meat, noble game and mature cheeses.

 TRAMBUSTI
Casa Fondata nel 1934

Chianti Trambusti was founded in 1934 by Orlando Trambusti, a wine lover and connoisseur who decided to turn his own natural vocation into a profession.

Today the company is a large wine making firm with modern, functional equipment used to produce and bottle top quality wines, while fully respecting its traditions and the territory. In the 2000s, the company returned to its territorial vocation, purchasing Tenuta Poggio ai Mandorli in Greve and restoring it to its original splendour.
